Edward McKean, a young man afflicted with tuberculosis, after a residence here of several weeks, spent in the Bradshaws, left for his home in Franklin, Pa., yesterday. His condition is serious and he is not expected to survive the trip.

Sufficient Odor.

A big bag was received at the supervisors' office yesterday from Morristown, containing a bunch of twenty-four wild cats, one coyote and four skunks, sent by N. B. Johnston. He trapped them and asked for the usual bounty of $1 a piece, which was paid.

Groom Citizen.

Peter Mackin was in the city yesterday from the Groom creek section. He says the prevailing opinion is that the Rivera, the alleged Poland shooter, passed through that section a few days ago and was for some time in a Mexican wood camp before leaving for the south.

At the Helm.

After several days' manipulation of the throttle, Harry Clark, the Williamson valley rancher, came into the city yesterday at a remarkable rate of speed. He had a Ford auto. It is said that his practicing was done on the plains near here, in order that he could have plenty of room to learn the trick.

Starts Up Business.

W. M. Neagle was a visitor to the city yesterday from Wickenburg, and will return this evening. He says his confectionery and merchandising house has been opened, and that the new city of Wickenburg is in a thrifty condition since it entered into corporate life with a mayor and a board of aldermen.

Dam Built.

J. Burhan has returned from Seligman, where he has finished a large dam for J. W. Sullivan, which will be utilized for the storage of water for cattle purposes. The dam is twenty feet high and eighty feet across, impounding quite a lake of water. Other dams are being built in the ravines there to catch the flow in gulches that will come when the summer season in rains occur.

Black Sand Gold.

While in the city yesterday from the Lower Lynx creek placer beds, J. B. Allend of Treadwell & Allend, who are working the black sand deposits of that country, displayed plenty of the free gold that was recently washed out. These placers are attracting much attention, and it is now the intention to put up extensive machinery to handle the soil. They have been sampling these sands for over six months and feel very enthusiastic over what has been demonstrated.

To the Basin.

Ed Block, who is developing the Sink to Rise mine in Copper Basin district, leaves today to inspect the work going on there. Reports reach him that the showing is good, and that the ledge is shown for a distance of 800 feet from the old workings, of 800 feet from the old workings, of 800 feet from the old workings, of 800 feet from the old workings.

From the Cash Mines.

Among the visitors to the city yesterday from the south was Harrington Blauvelt, coming from the well known Cash mines, that are now being operated.

Mechanic Leaves.

John Vale left last night for Castle Hot Springs, where he goes on contract work at that point, where a big building is being constructed by Meyers & Greig of this city.

Goes North.

Colin Campbell, the big sheep man, left yesterday for Cedar Glade, where his flocks are ranging. He is doing considerable work there in improving the facilities for handling his animals.

Saw the Canyon.

J. F. McIntyre of Nogales stopped over in the city while en route home. He is a prominent insurance man of the line city, and has been to the Knights of Columbus convocation at the Grand Canyon.

in the yellow metal and twenty-four per cent in aluminum. Mr. Block is pleased with the good showing made.

To See the Town.

After concluding their convocation at the Grand Canyon many members of the southern Arizona lodges of the Knights of Columbus stopped over in the city last night, to spend a day in seeing the sights of the Mile High town. Globe has the strongest representation, the following being noticed: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Taylor, Mrs. Rose Shanley, Mrs. Ernestine Sultan, George Sultan, Robert Altweis, H. McGraw, Florence Middleton, Wm. Burke, Ed P. Buford, W. H. O'Brien and C. M. Ryan. They go south today.

Good Work.

The evening practice runs of the hose team are attracting a large crowd of spectators. The boys are daily growing in favor in the coming race with Jerome, and there is every indication that they will conquer. Charley Heala, who spikes the team, is said to be the fastest man who ever lived in this city. It is said that he can cut close to the ten-second record. The manager is waiting for Carner and McKennie to get into the team, when it will be a fast bunch. The hose work is also reported to be good.

Fraternally Duty.

Hearing of the sudden death of John Fanetti, who passed away in this city a few days ago, James Coyne, an intimate friend of the deceased, came in from McCabe yesterday to attend the funeral. Mr. Coyne is a strong believer in fraternalism, and is the sachem of the Red Men at the little mining camp. The funeral was held under the auspices of that order. A large number of Red Men and of the Western Federation of Miners was in attendance, as well as many other friends. Mr. Coyne will return to McCabe today.

From Friday's Daily

Mining Man Here.

S. R. Trengrove of the Iron King mine, near Humboldt, is in the city on business matters.

Governor Sloan Arrives.

After several weeks' pleasantly passed in hunting and fishing on Oak creek, Governor Sloan reached his home in the city Wednesday. He reports having had an agreeable time, and will remain here indefinitely.

Two Ransomed.

Joe Rudy and S. Nellis, well known Kirkland valley ransomed, are in the city on business matters.

Ash Forker Here.

John Foley, the well known Ash Fork resident, was a visitor to the city yesterday on business.

Sachem Leaves.

James Coyne, the well known McCabe citizen and a prominent Red Man, left yesterday for his home.

Mine Examination.

Elliott & Drecher leave today for the Lower Turkey creek district on a mine examination. They will return in about five days.

From Dewey.

Mrs. Henry Clay, a pioneer woman of the early days, native born, is in the city on a visit with friends, coming from the Agua Fria section.

From the Cash Mines.

Among the visitors to the city yesterday from the south was Harrington Blauvelt, coming from the well known Cash mines, that are now being operated.

Smelter Man Here.

W. A. Abbott, holding a responsible position with the Arizona Smelting company at Humboldt, is renewing acquaintances in the city. He is here on court matters.

Back to Seligman.

Judge C. S. Stivers, Mike McBride, Robert Burns and wife, and Mr. Williams, left for their homes at Seligman yesterday. They were called to this city on court matters.

Mechanic Leaves.

John Vale left last night for Castle Hot Springs, where he goes on contract work at that point, where a big building is being constructed by Meyers & Greig of this city.

merical man, representing a big hardware firm in Chicago, has been visiting the city for a few days. He is a pioneer traveler in this territory. He went south last night.

To the Santa Fe.

Deputy Sheriffs Ahlers, Bottorff, W. W. Tice and R. Hoffman returned to the main line of the Santa Fe yesterday. Bottorff is stationed at the Needles and Ahlers is at Seligman. They were all here on court matters.

To the Seashore.

Mrs. J. K. McDonnell and children, and Miss Erin and Miss Babe Morrison will leave tomorrow for the coast. They will join Mrs. Robt. E. Morrison and remain for some weeks in an outing at the principal points of interest.

Reports Progress.

Ed Tomlinson, one of the rising generation in up to date mining matters, is in the city laying in supplies for the United Gold and Silver Mining company, on the Hassayampa. His company continues the work of doing things in that section.

Bright Boy Student.

The many friends of Emmett Morrison, son of Robt. E. and Mrs. Morrison, will be pleased to learn that he has returned to his home here, arriving last night. He has finished a year of schooling at St. Nobart's college, West De Pere, Wis., and will spend his vacation in this section.

Baby Buried.

Frances Eliza, infant child of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Peach, was laid away yesterday afternoon in the Odd Fellows cemetery. Many friends of the family attended the funeral and the floral tributes were profuse. The afflicted parents have the sympathy of all in their sorrow.

Auto for the Dead.

The undertaking firm of Maus & Shannon are contemplating the introduction of a new motive power for the transportation of the dead to the cemetery, ordering a very handsome automobile hearse, now in universal use in the larger cities. With all of its morbid make up the hearse built on these lines has a very beautiful exterior appearance.

Again on Duty.

Deputy Sheriff Campbell of Humboldt has returned from a month's visit to friends in Oklahoma. Combining business with pleasure he took with him to that state a car load of horses for the use of some agricultural friends, the work of these animals in the farm being preferable to that of the Missouri mule.

To Fix Rates.

Paul P. Hastings is in San Francisco on important railroad duties. A general conference is being held there to adjust traffic matters generally, the consideration of freight rates being the main question. All roads of the Pacific coast are represented, and it is the intention to make all future rates operative at the same time instead of having special classifications prevail at the specified dates of the different interests affected. He will return to this city in a few days.

From Saturday's Daily

Home From Coast.
Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wright returned last night from a trip to the coast.

Mine Operator Here.
T. F. Franklin, operating mining property in the McCabe district, is in the city on business matters.

Goes to Country.
Miss Duke Lewis of this city left yesterday for Peeples' valley, where she will visit with friends for several days.

Goes East.
Harold Baxter was a passenger yesterday afternoon for the east, his destination being Boston, where he will remain for some time.

No Preaching.
There will be no preaching service in the Congregational church tomorrow. On the following Sunday Rev. Mr. Manger will occupy the pulpit.

Returns Home.
Mrs. J. H. Mulrein returned to her home in this city yesterday, accompanied by Miss Mulrein, who has been attending school in Los Angeles for the past two years.

Improving.
The many friends of Col. Jack Owens, who is at the hospital, will be pleased to learn that he is improving from his recent sickness and will soon be as well as formerly.

Installs Hoist.
A. S. Hickey sent to Kirkland yesterday a new hoist and gasoline engine which he will place on ground he is developing there. It was ordered from the Arizona Mine Supply company.

On for Parker.
Laurence Martin left yesterday for Parker, where he will remain. He has land and mining interests at that point and will look after them. He has much faith in the future of the river city.

Visiting Relatives.
M. C. Jolly, brother of County School Superintendent J. B. Jolly, after a visit of several days in the city, returns this morning to Seligman, where he is identified with the McBride mercantile interests.

Army Officer Here.

Colonel O. H. Perley of the United States army, stationed at Denver, arrived at Fort Whipple yesterday. He is making his annual inspection of posts within his department, and will remain for a few days.

School Census.

A. G. Curtis has sent in the census of the school children of Walker, which shows that there are at the present time a total enrollment of twenty-four children in that mining camp. This is an increase over the preceding year.

Meets With Accident.

Bert Dyer, an employee of the Head Lumber company, fell from the shed in the yard at that place yesterday, and fractured his foot. He kept on at work driving the team for the remainder of the day, then gave up and went to his room.

Got His Man.

Sheriff Hayden of Maricopa county came up from Phoenix yesterday and returned on the evening train. He took Jim Boucher back to answer to a charge of stealing a saddle from some person in that city. He was intercepted at Mayer.

Humboldt Visitor.

R. W. Thomas, formerly general foreman of the Arizona Smelting company at Humboldt, but at present with the Humboldt Improvement company, is in the city in attendance at court. He gives a very good account of the Smelter City outlook.

Prices Were Good.

Oscar Rush, the Placitas goat king, arrived from Kansas City yesterday, where he disposed of several hundred head of these animals. He received four and five cents per pound. He says good prices prevail in that market for all kinds of live stock.

Goes to Grand Jury.

Judge McLane, after two days' deliberation in the case of Louis Lebaer against Thomas Morrell, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, gave a decision that sustains the charge, and Morrell goes to the grand jury for the alleged offense. His bail was fixed at $500, which was given.

Comes Back.

Gus Schraple, who left the city a few days ago for Searchlight, Nev., to accept a position as gasoline engineer, returned yesterday, this time to take up permanent residence in Arizona. He was much displeased with the engines there, and the climate also, and prefers this section to any that he visited.

Works Mines Now.

D. L. Booker, one of the fire victims at Walker, is in the city on business matters. He has discontinued the selling of merchandise since the fire swept away his interests, and is developing the Black Diamond mine at a point near where his store formerly stood. He gave a very good account of the work as it shows up at the present time.

From the River.

J. M. Hobdy, a well known resident of Parker, is in the city from that metropolis, to escape the heat. He gives a flattering account of that city on the Colorado river, saying that its mineral interests are coming to the front, and with it the number of seekers after land is also great in numbers. The sprouting of the city lots is about to be made, and much interest is shown in the throwing open of that reserve to the home seeker. He says a big ice plant is going up there at the present time, and that it is useless to say that it is very much needed, the thermometer ranging to the 110 degree mark, and then some, on extremely warm days.

Rural Visitor.

A little prairie dog was killed in the city yesterday, at the home of Under Sheriff Raible. He was located by the water spaniel dog of Mr. Raible under the sidewalk, and after persistent trips of the dog to the point of hiding it was finally decided to rip up a plank, and the dog got him. He had probably strayed in from the country.

Took Wrong Road.

Lieutenant Alfante of the United States army, reached Whipple barracks yesterday, coming from the Presidio on the afternoon train. For some reason or other on leaving Los Angeles he got aboard of the Southern Pacific instead of the Santa Fe train, and made a rather long trip to get to his military post, coming via Phoenix instead of Ash Fork.

En Route to Polar Group.

Mr. and Mrs. John Merwin and children are in the city for a few days, en route to the Polar group of mines, near the Crown Point, in the Castle Creek district. Until recently Mr. Merwin has been with the Arizona Copper-Gold company on Cherry creek. He speaks well of the mining future of that company, and especially so of the new Lane mill, which he believes will revolutionize the milling industry of all claims on which it is placed.

Will Retire.

First Lieutenant John H. Baker, commanding Company F, twenty-first United States infantry, stationed at Fort Whipple, will leave in a few days for the east, and in a short time thereafter will be placed on the retired list. He enjoys an excellent name in military circles and his many friends outside of the army will regret to learn that he is to leave the service.

One-Sided School.

Edith Zapada, the school census enumerator of Octave, has submitted her report to Superintendent of Schools Jolly, giving the number of children in attendance at the school at that point. There are an even forty, of whom thirty are Mexicans and the other four Americans. This is the only district in Yavapai county that shows such a difference in favor of the Mexican or any other foreign nationality.

Preliminary at Poland.

Owing to the fact that many witnesses will be examined in the hearing of the preliminary trial of River, accused of the shooting of Woodruff, it has been decided to conduct the examination of witnesses in the preliminary trial at Poland. Next week will be chosen. This will give the witnesses at that point an opportunity to continue their labors without going to the expense of coming to this city and incurring a loss of from two to three days in time.

FOR SALE.

For sale or lease—250 Nannie goats and their kids, or would take in a partner with a like number of goats. For further particulars apply or write to E. LEESMAN, Hillsdale, Ariz.
